Licence Agreement

INTRODUCTION

COLABORANTE Composite Slab Design Software is a software licensed, not sold. Use of this software is subject to license restrictions. Carefully read this license agreement before using the software. Use of software indicates complete and unconditional acceptance of the terms and conditions set forth in this agreement. Any additional or different purchase order terms and conditions shall not apply.

END-USER LICENSE AGREEMENT ('AGREEMENT') FOR NO-CHARGE SOFTWARE

Checking 'I accept the terms of the license agreement.' or installing and/or using the Software (defined below) establishes a binding agreement between Colaborante ('CT') and you as the person or entity licensing the Software ('Customer'); provided that if you are accepting this Agreement on behalf of a legal entity, you represent that you have the authority to bind such entity to this Agreement, in which case the term 'Customer' refers to such entity. If you do not have such authority or if you do not accept all of the terms of this agreement, immediately return, or if received electronically, certify destruction of software and all accompanying items, and you will receive a full refund of any license fee paid.

1. SOFTWARE; OWNERSHIP; GRANT OF LICENSE.

1.1 The software, including any upgrades, updates, modifications, revisions, copies, and documentation made available by CT ('Software'), is available for download by Customer at no charge. To the extent Customer requests and CT accepts a request to download the Software from CT's customer centre, each such request will constitute a contract between Customer and CT, which shall be governed solely and exclusively by the terms and conditions of this Agreement. CT 's delivery of Software by electronic means is subject to Customer's provision of an e-mail address.

1.2 Software, including all copies and documentation, is copyrighted, trade secret and confidential information of CT or its licensors, who maintain exclusive title to all Software and retain all rights not expressly granted by this Agreement. You must hold CT confidential information in strict confidence. CT grants to Customer, subject to Customer's compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, a non-transferable, nonexclusive license to use Software solely for Customer's business purposes. Customer acknowledges that CT may discontinue the no-charge program at any time. Each order for Software will identify the Software, license unit of measure, and any time period restriction, if applicable. Such limitations may be technically implemented through the use of authorization codes, license keys, or similar devices. Customer may choose to, but is not required to, provide suggestions, data, or other information to CT regarding possible improvements in the operation, functionality or use of Software, whether in the course of receiving services, evaluating Software or otherwise, and any inventions, product improvements, modifications or developments made by CT, at its sole discretion, will be the exclusive property of CT.

2. CONDITIONS

2.1 Customer shall not loan, rent, lease, distribute, or otherwise transfer Software without CT 's prior written consent, except as part of a permanent transfer of the Software as permitted by this Agreement. Customer may copy Software only as reasonably necessary to support the authorized use, as long as the number of licenses in use does not exceed the number of licenses purchased by Customer. Each copy must include all notices embedded in Software as received from CT. All copies remain the property of CT or its licensors. Customer shall not: (a) use the Software or allow its use for developing, enhancing or marketing any product that is competitive with the Software; or (b) disclose to any third party the results of or information pertaining to any testing of the Products against a third party's products for the purpose of competitive comparison. Customer shall not reverse-assemble, reverse-compile, reverse-engineer or in any way derive source code from Software.

2.2 Customer may allow third party consultants or contractors ('Authorized Third Parties') to access and use the Software on Customer's behalf as long as: (a) the use is solely for Customer's internal business operations; (b) each Authorized Third Party is underwritten confidentiality obligations with Customer protecting CT's intellectual property and Confidential Information with terms no less stringent than this Agreement; (c) Customer ensures that the Authorized Third Party's use of the Software complies with the terms of this Agreement; and (d) on completion of the Authorized Third Party's services requiring use of the Software, Customer ensures that the Software are immediately and completely uninstalled from Authorized Third Party's equipment and/or premises, as applicable.

2.3 Customer may move the Software: (a) from one node (i.e. authorized hardware) to another without charge; and (b) from one site to another site. No transfer under this section shall increase the license scope or number of nodes in use by Customer. Except as provided herein, Customer shall not sublicense, assign or otherwise transfer the Software without CT's prior written consent and payment of CT's then-current applicable transfer charges. Any attempted transfer without CT's prior written consent shall be a material breach of this Agreement and may, at CT 's option, result in the immediate termination of the licenses and this Agreement. On CT 's written request, Customer will furnish to CT: (a) a certification signed by an officer indicating whether the Software is being used in accordance with this Agreement; and (b) a copy of any usage reports generated from the Software, if applicable. CT may engage an independent auditor to review Customer's Software usage and related records during Customer 's normal business hours to confirm compliance with this Agreement.

3. CUSTOMER RESPONSIBILITIES; DISCLAIMER OF WARRANTIES; NO SUPPORT.

Customer is solely responsible for selecting the Software to achieve its intended results, and for the installation of, use of, and results obtained from the Software. Customer is solely responsible for compliance with all laws, rules and regulations applicable to Customer's use of the Software. Customer is solely responsible for any taxes, customs duties or similar charges arising out of Customer's receipt or use of the Software. The Software is made available by CT without warranty of any kind. CT and its licensors expressly disclaim any and all warranties of any nature, express or implied, including without limitation any warranties of merchantability, fitness for purpose or non-infringement. CT support services are not available for no-charge Software. CT may, but is not required to, make patches, updates and upgrades to the Software available from time to time. Installation and use of such releases are governed by the terms of this Agreement.

4. DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITY.

The Software is provided to Customer at no-charge. CT and its licensors shall have no liability for any damages whatsoever. Without limiting the foregoing, in no event shall CT or its licensors be liable for direct, punitive, exemplary, indirect, special, incidental, or consequential damages (including lost data, lost profits or savings) whether based on contract, tort or any other legal theory, even if CT or its licensors have been advised of the possibility of such damages. Customer acknowledges that the Software is provided at no-charge, reflecting the allocation of risk set forth in this Agreement and that CT would not enter into this Agreement or offer the Software at no charge without these limitations on its liability. Some jurisdictions do not allow the exclusion or limitation of liability for certain damages for certain types of claims, so the above limitation may not apply to you to the extent prohibited by such local laws.

5. TERM AND TERMINATION.

This Agreement remains effective until terminated. This Agreement will immediately terminate upon notice if Customer exceeds the scope of license granted or otherwise fails to comply with Sections 1 or 2. For any other material breach under this Agreement, CT may terminate this Agreement upon 30 days written notice if Customer is in material breach and fails to cure such breach within the 30-day notice period. If a Software license was provided for limited term use, such license will automatically terminate at the end of the authorized term. Customer may terminate this Agreement at any time by providing written notice to CT. On termination of this Agreement or any Software license under this Agreement, Customer shall ensure that all use of the affected Software ceases, and shall certify the destruction of all copies of the Software used by Customer to CT's reasonable satisfaction. The following sections will survive any termination of this Agreement: 1-4 and 6-7.

6. EXPORT.

Customer agrees to comply with all international and national laws that apply to the Software.

7. GENERAL TERMS.

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in all respects in accordance with the laws of Portugal; however, this provision shall not restrict CT's right to bring an action against Customer or its subsidiary in the jurisdiction where Customer's or its subsidiary's place of business is located. This Agreement may only be modified in writing by authorized representatives of the parties. All notices required or authorized under this Agreement must be in writing and shall be sent, as applicable, to Customer's legal department. Waiver of terms or excuse of breach must be in writing and shall not constitute subsequent consent, waiver or excuse.
